A tourist destination with a rich and varied offer, where ancient traditions remain alive and are revived

Festivals and pilgrimages are a constant practice in the North of Portugal. A region with centuries of history, where ancient traditions remain alive and are revived in a territory dotted with churches, sanctuaries, convents, chapels and monasteries, places where people come to fiercely worship throughout the year.

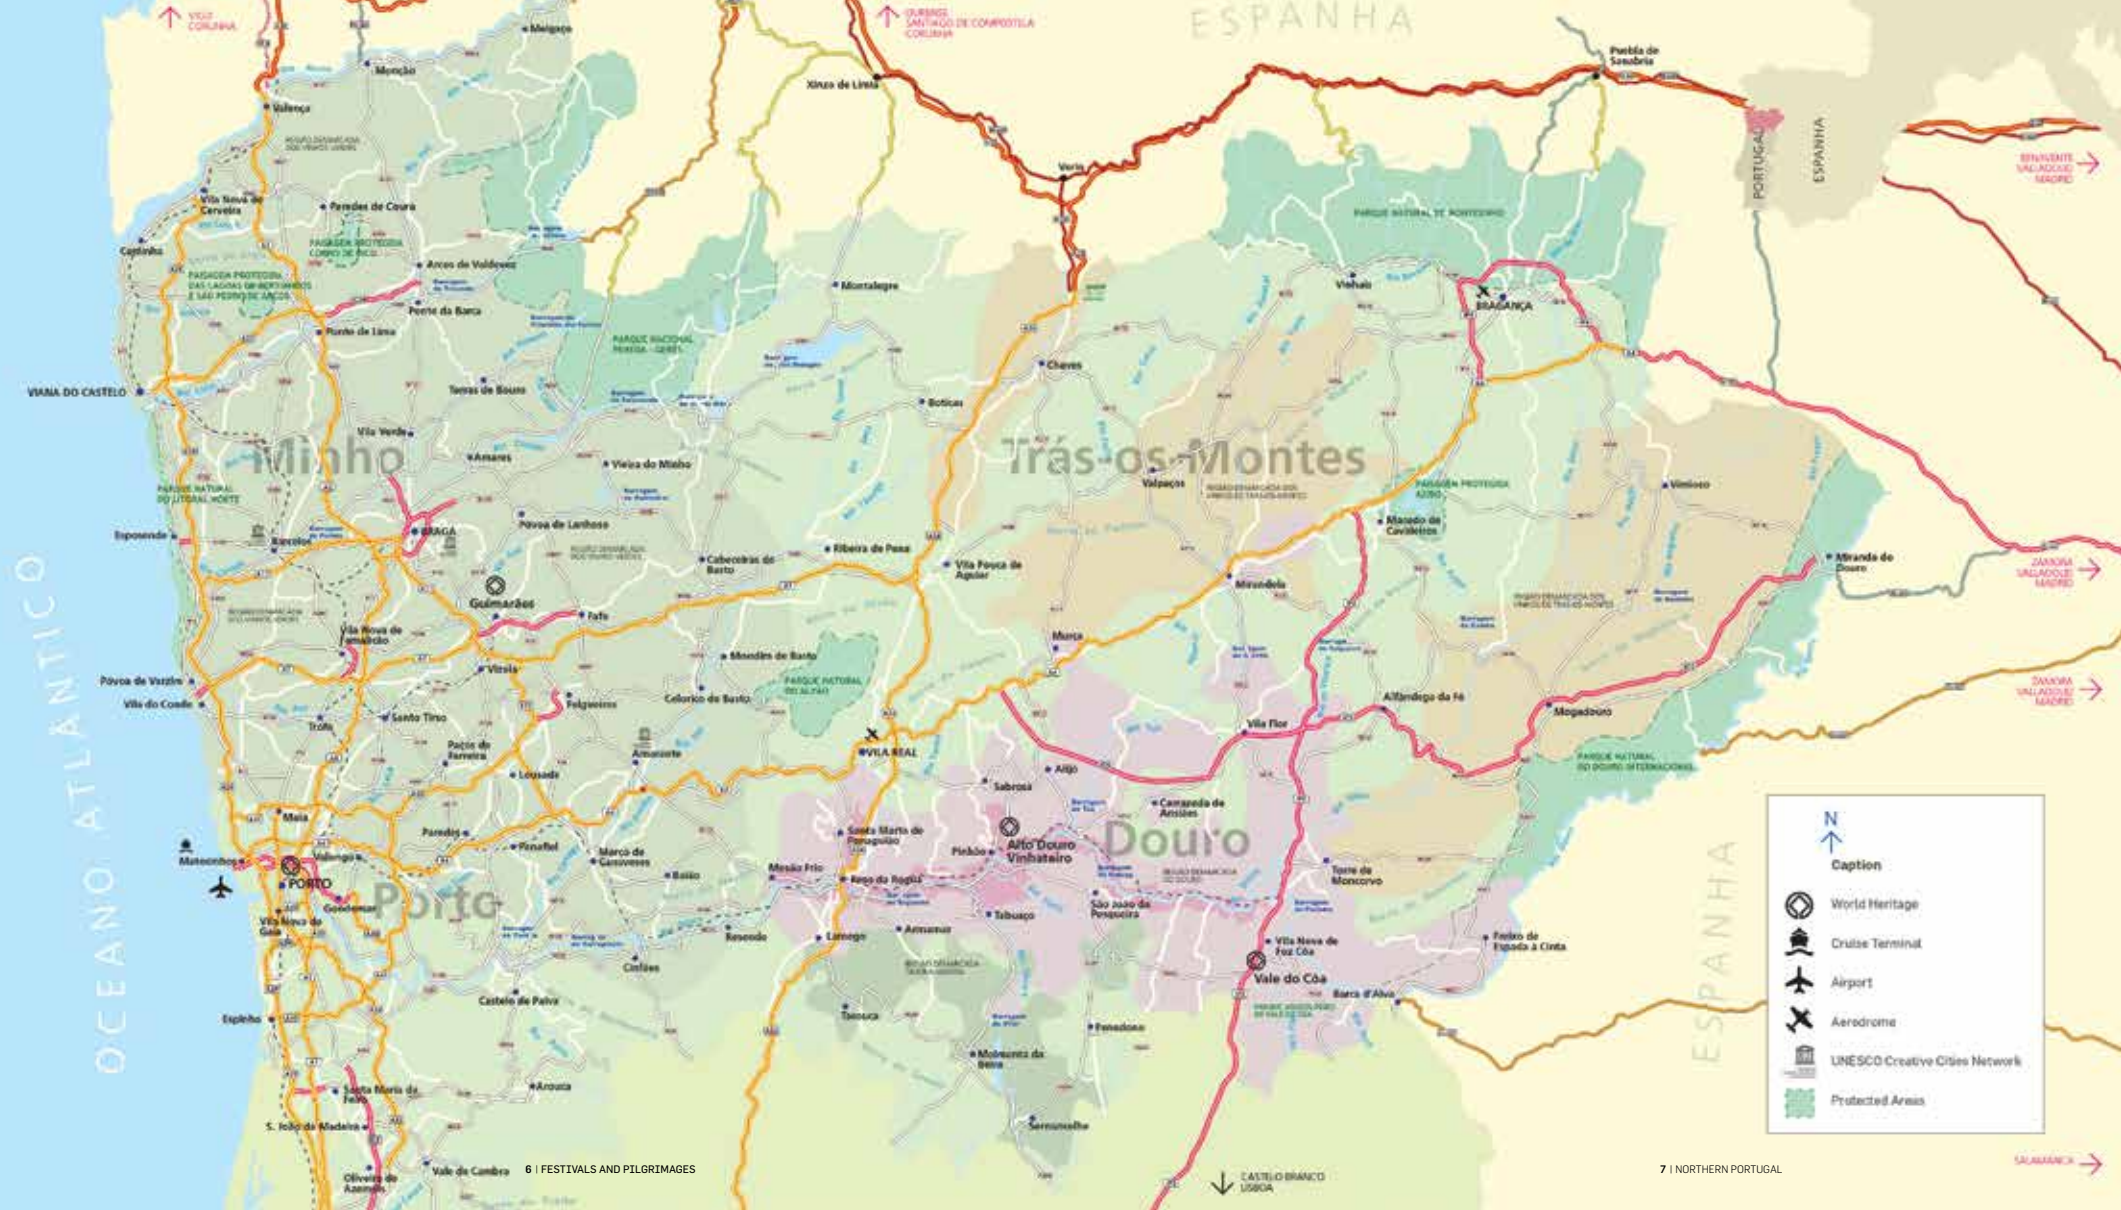

In the villages, towns and cities in the North, customs and traditions never end. All the experiences are blended with the rituals of the pilgrimages to the Virgin, the patroness saints, or with the June festivals in honour of the popular saints, a period in which its inhabitants - working people of a thousand trades - dedicate body and soul to their festivals and pilgrimages.

Women decorate the altars, put their best quilts on the windows for the procession, receive family members from afar and prepare their best meals to make sure no mouth goes unfed during these days. Men wear their best suits, attend Mass, carry heavy wooden platforms, put on a firework display announcing the feast, and always choose the best wine to accompany the good food. Here, traditions remain intact. The centuries-old festivals that shine to the rhythm of traditional folklore also exhibit in the public squares tools and handicrafts, closely linked to the people's daily life and labour needs. Religiosity and the pagan celebration retain their splendour, year after year, thanks to the spirit of its people that bring it all together in merriment, where there is no shortage of marches and parades; singing groups and music bands; sporting events, contests and auctions.

Worship as well as popular celebrations attract not only fervent pilgrims seeking miracles and fulfilling promises, but also tourists moved by the echo of traditions, curious about the cultural and heritage sites in the North of Portugal, to where thousands flock. Visit our temples, learn about the antiquity of its origins, walk around the surrounding landscapes, marvel at the colourful illuminations, share our joy, taste the homemade delicacies, enjoy our traditional dances and fill your heart with the friendliness and human warmth with which the North will always welcome you...

Come along and do join us at the festivals!

A festival held annually in honour of Santo Antão da Barca, located in the parish of Parada, in Alfândega da Fé. This Sanctuary was relocated due to the construction of the Baixo Sabor dam. The site where the old sanctuary was located will be submerged by the waters of the reservoir.

The Chapel of Santo Antão, a building from the 18th century, was moved to the new location through a heritage preservation process, unique in the country. Built on top of a hill, on the site known as Rebentão, about a kilometre away from its previous location, the future sanctuary replicates the same relationship with the water and the same spatial orientation, although at a higher altitude. The new sanctuary comprises the old chapel and buildings built from scratch, such as an inn, a restaurant & bar, a museum and an administrative space.

last Sunday of May

The Pilgrimage to the Sanctuary of Nossa Senhora da Abadia is a tradition that has been upheld since 1978. Since then, on the last Sunday of May, hundreds of faithful climb the hill towards the sanctuary. Departing from Largo de Bouro, this pilgrimage of the Archpriesthood of Amares, counts with the presence of a few parishes from Terras de Bouro and Vieira do Minho. Along the way, you can admire a breathtaking landscape, green as far as the eye can see. Minutes before arriving at the sanctuary, the pilgrims get to the first of eight chapels of the Way of the Cross, consecrated to Our Lady. Each one represents the steps of the life of Christ and the Virgin.

The Sanctuary of the Abbey, whose history is closely linked to the history of the Monastery of Santa Maria do Bouro, is surrounded by "barracks", arcade buildings that gave shelter to the pilgrims who spent days and nights there. Everything about this sanctuary is an invitation to reflect and take a rest. The whisper of the waters coming from the stream, the fountains and the soothing landscape, are just an example of the attractions of the area.

Recovered in 2009, the festival was integrated in the municipality's celebrations, held on the second weekend of August, returning to the people of Arcos one of its most symbolic and important religious festivities.

FESTIVAL OF NOSSA SENHORA DA PENEDA (OUR LADY OF PENEDA)

from 1 to 8 September

In ancient times, the pilgrimage was held in August. Nowadays, the Festival of Nossa Senhora da Peneda takes place from 1 to 8 September. From August 31 to September 8, after 5 pm, a rosary is sung, while going through all the chapels of the staircase of the sanctuary. On September 6, the people sing and dance to the sound of concertinas all night, until 7 am. It is considered one of the most popular festivals in Portugal, with the presence of Galician and Portuguese pilgrims.

The festival is based on a natural and architectural space of universal beauty, with a magnificent large rocky outcrop, a waterfall and astonishing scenic natural surroundings. The beautiful temple, dating from the 18th-19th centuries, and its staircase with twenty thematic chapels, form as a whole an unparalleled feature, within the privileged space of the only Portuguese National Park: the Peneda-Gerês Park.

FESTIVAL OF NOSSA SENHORA DA PORTA

from 20 to 21 September

In the primitive façade of the Church of Mercy, there once was a niche with the image in stone of Our Lady of Mercy, which the people called Nossa Senhora da Porta. The construction works performed in 1733 allowed the construction of an altar on the porch, so it was possible to celebrate mass. Every year, at the beginning of September, a novena was prayed in honour of Our Lady of Porta, consecrating the day 7 in Her Honour, the day in which the church opened the "oratory" dedicated to Her at night to celebrate mass. The devotion that the population of the municipality had for this image was translated in the huge amount of wax, clothes, cereals, animals and pieces in gold offered as payment for promises. However, in the late 19th century, the Holy House of Misericórdia was forced to stop having the feast due to budgetary restrictions. In 2010, the fraternity took over the tradition by arranging, on the third weekend of September, a popular festival that attempts to recreate the cheerful and spontaneous atmosphere of the ancient festivals of the Alto Minho.

ARMAMAR FESTIVAL OF SÃO GREGÓRIO (ST. GREGORY)

March 12

This festival is celebrated on March 12, in Santa Cruz, next to the chapel of the saint. In ancient times, the saint was revered in a special way by the workers of the Douro farms, since after this date they were entitled to snacking, which were then removed on the day of Nossa Senhora dos Remédios, on September 8. It also had a very busy fair, with handicrafts (tinware) and desserts (the "falachas") and where essential products and tools for agriculture were sold. The spinning tops used by kids to have fun and engage in playful banter were also sold there. Currently, the festival is celebrated on August 20 (although it does not happen every year). The fair still takes place on March 12, but its importance has since then decreased.

FESTIVAL OF NOSSA SENHORA DA PIEDADE (OUR LADY OF PITY)

May 31

This popular Festival in Honour of Our Lady of Pity used to take place on the last Sunday of May. On Trinity Sunday, at the parish of Tões, along with the parish of Armamar, people travelled in procession to the sanctuary. Essentially religious, it has lost its profane traditions. However, the festival maintains ancient rituals. People take the image from the sanctuary and then carry it in procession by the three parishes (S. Martinho, Gogim and Lumiães) and return to the starting point.

GPS: N 41.079987 O -7.660979

FESTIVAL OF NOSSA SENHORA DAS DORES (OUR LADY OF PAIN) AND SANTIAGO FAIR

May 31

The festival was originally held on the first Sunday of September, in 1860. The fair was made famous by market products related to agriculture and cattle raising. In 1938, the City Council, then presided by Father Fausto Guedes, was forced to change the day of the fair to Saturday, yielding to the pressure from the clergy that did not approve of the fair on Sunday. The change gave rise to large protests by the people of the parish and the entire Municipality. The Portuguese Legion even had to intervene to ensure public order. Everything was alright at the end. The day of the fair was changed to Tuesday, but after a while it started to take place on Sundays, as still happens. The religious festival, for its part, lost a lot of its splendour and nowadays it consists of simple liturgical celebrations on the day of the saint, September 15.

location: Santiago

FESTIVAL OF SÃO DOMINGOS (ST. DOMINIC)

from August 3 to 5

Fontelo organizes one of the leading and most popular festival of the municipality. It happens every year, on August 3, 4 and 5.

The tradition dates back to the Middle Ages.

Over the centuries, the festival won such importance that the City Council of Lamego was "obliged" to take part in it, along with the vicars of the Cathedral, the clerics, the Franciscans from the Convent of St. Francis and a lot of city people and its surroundings. It was customary to distribute a dinner at the end of the ceremony to the procession's participants. The Franca Fair takes place on August 3 and marks the beginning of the festival.

AROUCA PROCESSION OF THE FOGARÉUS Holy Wednesday

Recreating the last steps of Christ towards the Calvary, the traditional Procession of the Fogaréus runs through the streets of the village, to the sound of the Musical Band of Arouca and illuminated by the candlelight of the faithful.

The procession stops at the Calvary, where you can hear the prayers and see the wooden platforms that recreate the most significant moments of the Passion of Christ, from its delivery to path taken with the cross over His shoulder and finally, His Crucifixion.

A genuine manifestation of faith and tradition.

FESTIVAL OF RAINHA SANTA MAFALDA (OUR LADY QUEEN MAFALDA)

May 2

The story of Arouca cannot be dissociated from the strong presence of Our Lady Queen Mafalda (Rainha Santa Mafalda). The 2nd of May is the most important date to Arouca according to the Gregorian calendar. It is a municipal holiday, and on this day the example of the life and legacy of Rainha Santa Mafalda, patroness of Arouca, is conjured.

The image of Rainha Santa Mafalda, whose body is kept in a grave of ebony and silver, can be seen in the Church of the Monastery of Arouca and is still present in the town's coat of arms. A long procession that takes place in the streets embodies this faith, bringing thousands of people to Arouca. The 'little angels' and the beautiful wooden platforms, accompanied by the Band of Arouca's music, parade through the streets, which have windows adorned with noble quilts and from where many faithful throw flowers to during the passage of the Blessed Sacrament.

May 3

Located on the plateau of Freita Mountain, the Chapel of Nossa Senhora da Laje attracts many pilgrims, not only from the municipality of Arouca, but mostly inhabitants from the slopes of Freita Mountain. The devotion to this Lady dates back to the late 16th century, early 17th century, at a time when many of the chapels that we can see at the top of the hills were built, and were once occupied by pre-Roman settlements and mediaeval castles. The 3rd of May, the day after the festival in honour of Rainha Santa Mafalda, 20 crosses, each of which represents a parish of the Municipality, go in a procession that travels along the path of the stone Crosses, in a manifestation of faith that attracts pilgrims of Arouca, but also from the municipalities of São Pedro do Sul, Vale de Cambra and Sever do Vouga.

FESTIVAL IN HONOUR OF NOSSA SENHORA DA MÓ (OUR LADY OF MÓ)

September 7

The chapel of Nossa Senhora da Mó (Our Lady of Mó), with a privileged view over the Arouca Valley, stands on top of a mountain.

The cult of Mary, under the title of Nossa Senhora da Mó (Our Lady of Mó), dates back to immemorial times. The first reference to the miracle that it is said saved a Moor of perishing inside a wooden box, which had a grinding wheel in stone on top of it, dates from the early 2th century. Since those ancient times, a festival is celebrated in honour of Nossa Senhora da Mó, always on September 7, at night and with the traditional "bacalhoada". On the 8th, the religious ceremonies take place along with the presence of a musical band, with children launching kites and with time devoted to socializing. In short, these are days when the people of Arouca will easily reconnect, especially those that have been away for a long time, in a pleasant location.

BOTICAS ST. SEBASTIAN'S FESTIVAL (S. SEBASTIÃO)

January 20

Every year, on January 20, one of the most important community oriented festivals takes place: the "Mezinha de S. Sebastião". Popular memory states that during the French invasion, the people of Vila Grande asked the image of St. Sebastian for protection, when soldiers were spotted near the villages of Couto de Dornelas, knowing that they would steal and loot everything to their passage. However, the troops did not stop, and the people, grateful, fulfilled the promise made to the Saint to celebrate the festival in His honour. Every year, the population organizes a community meal, for which the stewards are responsible (initially, the nine largest farmers from the village, on a system of rotation, were the ones in charge). These stewards, with the help of family and friends prepare the meals, which can take days and include bread, meat and rice. On the 20th, after mass, they go in procession with the Saint to the "Casa do Santo" - built especially for this purpose- where the priest blesses the food. On the main street, wooden benches (table) are placed and covered with linen tablecloths and everyone is invited. Each person must bring a plate, cutlery and drink to go with it.

PILGRIMAGE TO THE SANCTUARY OF SENHOR DO MONTE (OUR LORD OF THE HILL)

last Sunday of July

Located in Facho Mountain, this is one of the largest sanctuaries of the municipality. Legend has it that it was formerly only a path for mule drivers who stop to rest and usually put a penny in a niche, asking for divine protection against thieves. Until the day of the Lord of the Hill's appearance, where you can still see the footprints in the rocks. The people built Him a little chapel and the cult has grown to such an extent that the handouts have enabled the construction of a church, whose stones were transported on ox carts by local farmers. It is considered the protector of animals and once a year, on a Saturday, people still follow the ritual to take the cattle to take three laps around the sanctuary. On Sunday, the sanctuary is filled with pilgrims to watch the religious celebration and the majestic procession that takes place around the sanctuary, accompanied by various musical bands. Then, everyone eat their snacks, watch the musical group performance and walk around the place where vendors exhibit their products.

FESTIVAL OF SÃO SALVADOR DO MUNDO

2nd Sunday of August

It is one of the most peculiar festivals throughout the region since it celebrates the connection between people and animals. In fact, the festival of the Divine Saviour of the World, as it is nicknamed by the oldest, is characterized for being a religious celebration involving parishioners and all their cattle.

On the day of the festival, the people of the village, near and far, take up the cattle to fulfil a promise, making it take nine laps around the Chapel, sometimes carrying bags of grain, rye or corn, tied to the head, as a thank you for the protection provided. Then, the animals are blessed by the priest and remain in their hundreds, scattered and close to the chapel until the end of the ceremony.

It is an ancestral ceremony, but with a deep religious trait, intact up to the present day.

The festival in honour of Nossa Senhora da Livração and associated fairs, quickly became a place of "pilgrimage" in the region, bringing many people to Boticas. This festival has achieved one of its highest points in 1936, celebrating the centenary of the creation of the Municipality.

Thousands participated in an extensive parade of dozens of floats. Over the years, the festivals continued to maintain its importance, as thousands of people, year after year, commemorate this festival and integrate the long procession along the streets in town.

Another ceremony associated with these festivals is the placement of the St. Christopher in the river, with the infant Jesus in one of His shoulders and the boatman rod in his hand. This gigantic image is the last known example in Portugal of the performance of this Saint, which was banned from the religious scene by motion of the Counter-Reformation.

WINTER FESTIVALS

from December 25 to January 6

The most characteristic festivals in the municipality of Bragança are those that take place at the winter solstice, when the big bonfires are made in the various villages and people go the streets with masks on. From Christmas time, until the day of the Three Wise Men Day, various rituals with masks emerge, in which these strange beings “are on the loose”. The origin of the masked characters is bound to the cult of the ancestors, the fertility of the fields, the fertility of men and of animals, the maintenance of civic, moral law and order. The thematic festival of the masks in the municipality of Bragança is essentially associated with the following ceremonies: Festa dos Rapazes, Varge and Aveleda – December 25 and 26; Santo Estêvão, Rebordãos, Parada de Infanções, Grijó de Parada – December 26; Festa dos Reis, Salsas – from January 1 to 6 ; Rebordainhos – January 6; Baçal – January 5 and 6.

To warm up the throats and the body - because the village stands at an altitude of about 800 metres - the pilgrims have to their disposal local specialities: bread, chouriço (typical smoked sausage), goat, wine and the "chiripiti", a mixture of honey and brandy, produced in the mountains. Faith and legends aside, the festival is very well known for the concertina players and the "cantigas ao desafio" (singing challenges) that last until dawn.

The preparation of the Flower Carpet

For many years now, the traditional festivals "Festas dos Rojões" (fried pork meat festival) and "Festa dos Tremoços" (lupin beans festival) have been a reference in the folk festival panorama of the municipality of Espinho and beyond. Once, in a time where there were no refrigerators yet, the meat was preserved in salt or through a smoking process, and the pig slaughter took place from October onwards, when the weather was cooler. At the time of the festival, farmers would kill the pigs, so that there was plenty of food. At the weekend following the religious festival, people socialize, eat lupin beans, savour a good red wine to the sound of music and with plenty of entertainment.

Many pilgrims of the municipality of Esposende flock to the Chapel of Our Lady of the Lake every year - some coming from the city and others from Vila de Fão - arriving in decorated boats so they can later join the river procession that takes place on Sunday. The image of Our Lady of the Lake is transported on a boat along the river, and then transported to the churchyard opposite the local chapel, where a preacher delivers the sermon.

FAFE MUNICIPALITY'S FESTIVALS

2nd weekend of July

The Festivals in honour of Our Lady of Antime (Nossa Senhora de Antime) and Our Lady of Sorrows (Nossa Senhora das Dores) derive from a known legend. According to legend, the image of the Virgin appeared on S. Jorge Hill, a disputed site by two parishes, Fafe and Antime. After lengthy discussions, the people decided that the image of Our Lady of Antime would stay in the Church of Antime throughout the year, but on the day of the festival, the men of Antime would take it to the parish's borders. Then, the people from Fafe would take the image to their town, where they would celebrate until sunset, at which time the image of Our Lady would return to its habitual residence.

Today, the procession begins after the Eucharist. Ten men in white surplice and barefoot take the heavy wooden platform with the image of Our Lady of Mercy, holding Her Son on Her lap, for a three-hour walk. Next to the Bridge of S. José, on the border between the parishes, the encounter between the image of Our Lady of Antime and the image of Our Lady of Sorrows takes place. Face to face, they bow, which symbolises the welcoming action of Fafe towards its guest, the parish of Antime. Our Lady belongs to Fafe during this time, even if for just a few hours. The procession continues, stops at the Town Hall, goes through the Main Church and ends at the New Church of S. José. It remains there until 18.00, after which it returns to Antime. In the evening, after the promises are fulfilled, the image returns to its usual place for the rest of the year.

The festival is divided between religious ceremonies of devotion to the saint and popular demonstrations of joy, dominated by the genuine folklore of Minho.

LAMEGO

FESTIVAL OF NOSSA SENHORA DOS REMÉDIOS (OUR LADY OF REMEDIES)

from August 20 to September 9

It originates from a temple, erected in 1361, on the same location as the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Remedies (Nossa Senhora dos Remédios). In 1551, the then Bishop of Lamego erected the first chapel in honour of Our Lady of Remedies, where now the Court of the Kings (the square on the stairway) is located. In 1750, due to its degradation, the Brotherhood ordered its demolition and built a magnificent Sanctuary and a stairway with 618 steps, connecting it to the city. This work was only inaugurated in 1778. The festivities grew over the years and become one of the greatest in the country. Today, the programme includes exhibitions, concerts, parades, processions, fairs, cultural and sporting events. It is worth highlighting the 6, 7 and 8 September, the days in which the Luminous March (at night), the Battle of Flowers (afternoon) and the Majestic Procession of Triumph take place. In the afternoon of September 8 - municipal holiday - thousands of people attend this unique procession, admiring the wooden platforms bearing sacred images pulled by a bedecked yoke of oxen, the only one in Portugal and probably in the world, with express permission of the Holy See.

FESTIVAL OF NOSSA SENHORA DOS MENINOS (OUR LADY OF THE CHILDREN)

from 18 to 21 September

Festival in honour of Our Lady of the Children (Nossa Senhora dos Meninos). In Lamego, Our Lady of the Children is the most precious jewel of the residents of the neighbourhood of Ponte. Their zeal for the saint is so great that they would not allow, in any circumstance, anyone to remove the saint from the chapel. Besides the curious 16th century sculpture, one can appreciate the temple built by order of Bishop Manoel de Noronha, between 1551 and 1569. The altarpiece is a beautiful piece from the first phase of the national Baroque. It is worth mentioning the chancel's ceiling where, in twenty-five pictures, the Life of the Virgin is depicted, citing the Old Testament and the tradition written in so-called Apocryphal Gospels. Some works in jacaranda wood from Brazil are still preserved - once very common in our churches (18th century). The 17th and 18th-century style tiles on the walls are also worth of mention. The roof of the body of the small chapel describes the Life of Christ in over fifty panels.

last week of June

St. Peter is the patron saint of Macedo de Cavaleiros, celebrated on June 29 (municipal holiday) with Mass and a procession in His honour. Celebrated in hot weather and, in the past, in a time of abundant reaping.

During these festivals, the St. Peter's Fair is also of great importance, dating back to the 40s, when bands of reapers from all corners of the country, would head towards Macedo de Cavaleiros - the municipality of the Sickie as it was also known - in order to offer their services following a bidding process which was greatly disputed among the local farmers. Every night, the festival provides a great variety of shows and entertainment.

ST. AMBROSE'S FESTIVAL (SANTO AMBRÓSIO)

4th Sunday of August

St. Ambrose was one of the four Doctors of the Catholic Church (the other three being St. Augustine, St. Jerome and St. Gregory the Great). He was elected Bishop of Milan and only thereafter was he baptised. He is a very revered saint. In fact, one of the greatest religious festivals takes place in the Sanctuary of St. Ambrose, in the parish of Vale da Porca, on the plateau of Redondelo, traditionally on the last Sunday of August, gathering thousands of people. In prehistoric times, before Christianity, people would already flock to this site, as demonstrated by one Tumulus near the enclosure.

It is a religious festival that attracts many illustrious pilgrims, such as the Bishop or the Duke of Bragança. It consists of the Novena in honour of St. Ambrose, in the Main Church of Vale da Porca, as well as the procession that leads the wooden platform with St. Ambrose towards the plateau of Redondelo. The outdoor mass is celebrated in the sanctuary and promises are fulfilled. The devotees then enjoy the festival with food and the sound of musical performances.

João IV - in the euphoria of the Restoration War - crowned "Our Lady" in Vila Viçosa. You only need to see them to understand it: beautiful young girls with their gold earrings and picnic baskets on their heads, the men wearing vests, with horse chains and a three-cornered hat with the stamp of Santiago. ### PILGRIMAGE OF SANTIAGO

July 25

The pilgrimage of Santiago, an ancient tradition, marks Mondim de Basto and the top of Our Lady of Grace (Nossa Senhora da Graça) as the epicentre of the entire region. The payment of annual promises continues to be the great motivation of the pilgrims. They arrive at night on foot, excited by the music and the bucolic singing of the women of Basto.

At dawn, they climb the sacred hill to attend the religious and profane celebrations. Through ancient routes and roads, they return home, singing, dancing and partying along the way. Its existence is probably related to the old routes of the pilgrims who also went on a pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela.

PAÇOS DE FERREIRA FESTA DE S. BRÁS (ST. BLAISE FESTIVAL)

The festivities in honour of St. Blaise lead hundreds of people to this area of Frazão, which bears the same name. The 2nd of February is the day of Our Lady of the Lanterns while February 3th is the day of St. Blaise.

As in all popular and religious events, there are certain traditions that characterize them. St. Blaise is no exception and, although it is virtually no longer practised, the tradition of throwing confetti at everyone, similar to those seen during Carnival, still endures. A few dozens of years ago, the streets where the festival used to take place were expected to get completely covered with these confetti.

The Festival of St. Luzia takes place at the same time as the Capon Fair (December 13, in Freamunde). It is a festival that attracts many visitors looking for the famous Capon of Freamunde, considered one of the unique delicacies of Portugal. The capon received the attention of several authors, such as Gil Vicente, D. Francisco Manuel de Melo, Camilo Castelo Branco and Eça de Queirós, who mentioned it in their works as "Manjar dos Reis" (the Food of Kings). It is cooked Freamunde-style and it collects famous admirers, being the 13th day of the famous Capon Festival.

As the popular Portuguese proverb says: "From the capon, take the leg and from chicken, the breast", the writer Camilo Castelo Branco, author of Amor de Perdição [Doomed Love (1862)], advised people to dress it with old brandy and take it to table when the skin was perfectly crisp. Try it... you will not regret it.

FESTIVAL OF NOSSA SENHORA DOS CHÃOS (OUR LADY OF CHÃOS)

from September 7 to 8

This is an ancient festival. The cult of Our Lady of Chãos (Nossa Senhora dos Chãos) began with a rural tradition. It is said that at a certain time of the year the farmers would go to the temple of the saint and asked for fertility for their lands and good harvests. This church was built in the 18th century. The people say that "Our Lady of Chãos, takes the food and offers the evenings" (the saying refers to the period when the days start getting shorter and the nights longer). The festival is known for the grand auction held on August 15 and the traditional sale of the "Casca de Carvalho" melons. In the past, a fair with chickens and natural products of the land also took place, but eventually disappeared. As for the religious aspect, the festival begins on August 30 with novenas and sermons and ends on September 7. On that day, at night, there is a Portuguese music show. On the 8th, the Festival Mass is celebrated with all the priests of this parish present. In the afternoon, there is a procession in honour of the patron saint. Afterwards, there is a feast at night with the participation of music bands. At the end, a firework display is held, together with the "vacas de fogo" (fire cows).

PAREDES DE COURA FESTIVAL OF S. BENTO DA PORTA ABERTA (ST. BENEDICT OF THE OPEN DOOR)

2nd weekend of July

Legend has it that, after the completion of the Chapel of S. Benedict, the saint was placed on the altar and the next day the chapel's door was found open. The door was closed once again, but it always reappeared open.

The Fraternity then decided to remove the wooden door and replace it with a lacy iron door, so the saint could look outside, hence the designation of St. Benedict of the Open Door. It is one of the festivals of the municipality of Paredes de Coura with the highest number of believers. The miraculous powers attributed to this saint who "removes" people's blackheads and warts attract the people from Paredes de Coura and from the neighbouring municipalities.

PILGRIMAGE OF NOSSA SENHORA D'AGONIA (OUR LADY OF AGONY)

August 20 and the nearest weekend

The Pilgrimage of Our Lady of Agony (Nossa Senhora d'Agonia) is interwoven with the history of the Church of Agony, built in 1674, in honour of the patron saint of fishermen. At the time, a chapel was built as an invocation to the Good Jesus of the Holy Sepulchre of the Calvary and, a little further above, another chapel was built, in honour to Our Lady of the Conception (Nossa Senhora da Conceição).

Nowadays, the name of the saint is associated with the queen of the pilgrimages and the many traditions of Portugal's largest popular festival: the Pilgrimage in honour of Our Lady of Agony, created in 1772, from the devotion of sea men that came from Galicia and the entire Portuguese coast for the religious and pagan celebrations, which are still held every year on the municipal holiday. The highlights of the festival's programme are the "Desfile da Mordomia" (a traditional parade), the Solemn Procession, the Ethnographic Parade, the Costume Festival, the "Vamos para a Serenata" (Let's Serenade) Parade, the performances of folklore groups, the flowery carpets in the streets of Ribeira, the Procession to the Sea and the firework shows. VianaFestas, with the support of the City Council, is responsible for the programme's organization.

Every year, on the first Sunday of June, the Chapel welcomes a pilgrimage of the archpriesthood of Vieira do Minho. Next to the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Faith, there is a niche built on the trunk of a tree that houses the image of Our Lady. "In the past, a promise used to be made and it involved a living person taking two laps around the sanctuary, lying in an urn, while the philharmonic band and some contracted mourners accompanied the devotee in this macabre funeral procession." This type of promise was abolished a few years ago. In the chapel, there were some coffins to rent for this type of promise and were only recently removed.

ST. PETER (S. PEDRO)
from June 28 and 29

The St. Peter (S. Pedro) Fair closes the cycle of festivals held throughout the month of June in Vila Real. It is in Central Street, right in front of Capela Nova, that tradition gains weight, with an important Crafts Fair (earthenware of Bisalhães and linens of Agarez and Mondrões) being held here. To crown the festival's night, an old tradition typical of Vila-Real is being revived: the Pipkin game, in which groups of people spread through the historical centre form circles and throw the pipkin randomly, from hand to hand. Whoever drops and breaks the pipkin will have to pay for (or according to tradition "to steal") another pipkin!

2nd Sunday of September

Every year, in September, the parish of Mouços is the stage of a unique religious manifestation. The festivities in honour of Our Lady of Pena (Senhora da Pena) gather thousands of people who long to watch the procession known by its monumental wooden platforms: they reach 23 meters high (taller than the church itself), weigh tons and are carried for about a hundred men. The end of the procession is marked by the traditional "Dance of the Platforms" around the church, in which despite their size and weight each one is carried while jumping up and down along the churchyard. At night, it is time to enjoy a feast and a firework show. Every year, the festival is organized by a different community in the parish. It is important to note that the wooden platform of Our Lady of Pena is already included in the Guinness Book of Records.

last weekend of May

The first mass celebrated in the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Bom Despacho (Senhora do Bom Despacho) took place in 1644. One of the characteristics of this sanctuary is that the high altar is made of two large rocks, a sort of natural shelter that gives it a very peculiar aspect. These festivities are held every year in honour of the Virgin. The procession goes through the main streets of the parish until it reaches the sanctuary, culminating with an outdoor mass. The locals lay the carpet of flowers previously throughout the entire route of procession, which together with the best quilts that the families have, and which are displayed at the windows, bring colour and joy to the event and demonstrate the respect and devotion to the Virgin.

FESTIVAL OF S. BENTO DAS PERAS (ST. BENEDICT OF PERAS)

July 11 and the following weekend

The Festival in honour of St. Benedict of Peras, or "little St. Benedict" ("S. Bentinho") as it is affectionately known, takes place on July 11. The great pilgrimage takes place on the following Sunday. The image of the saint is taken to the Church of S. Miguel the night before and remains there for a year. The same ritual is repeated when the image is taken to the Church of Tagilde. The image leaves the churches on Sunday in pilgrimage to the top of the mountain, joining thousands of pilgrims, who make their pilgrimage on foot, praying and singing, or simply walking quietly and carrying red or white carnations in their mouths. It is also very common to see mothers carrying their children and thanking St. Benedict for the graces they were granted. A Mass is celebrated at the end of the walk. On Friday and Saturday nights, there is some musical entertainment, allowing families a moment to get together, enjoying traditional picnics and playing traditional games.
